

Stoke Prior First School Association
March's Monster Reading Marathon
Monday 27th February to Monday 27th March

We are challenging the children of Stoke Prior First School to read as many nights as they can from Monday 27th February to Monday 27th March.

Who can do it? We're asking parents, carers, grandparents and friends to sponsor their little bookworm to read as much as possible throughout the month.

Use the special bookmark to track progress, marking each night that your child reads with your initials. At the end of the challenge, each child's initialled boxes will be counted up and added to their class total. The class that has achieved the most will be treated to a special film afternoon, along with snacks and drinks before the Easter holidays, courtesy of the PTA.

All sponsorship money raised will go towards the new outdoor playground equipment.

Ready, steady, READ!
